

5th Asian IP Works-In-Progress Conference

Bios - Conference Presenters and Chairs

9th – 10th January 2020

Organizers:

Applied Research Centre for Intellectual Assets and the Law in Asia (ARCIALA), School of Law, Singapore Management University, Singapore

School of Law, City University of Hong Kong, HKSAR, China

Sponsors:

Sunshine Legal Foundation (PRC, Beijing)

Chen & Lin (Taiwan, Taipei)

In Alphabetical Order by Last Name

Anthony Tolulope ADEKOLA is a PhD Candidate at the School of Law, City University of Hong Kong under the supervision of Professor Wenwei Guan. His PhD thesis examines access to medicines in developing countries with a specific focus on the regional mechanism under WTO-TRIPS reforms. He is a recipient of the WIPO/KIPO/IIPTI scholarship for the WIPO-Korea Summer School on Intellectual property in South Korea. He was also awarded the Outstanding Academic Performance Award by Chow Yei Ching School of Graduate Studies, City University of Hong Kong in September 2019. He has two quality publications in journals indexed in the Social Sciences Citation (SCI) and SCOPUS. Adekola also has broad practical experience. He is admitted as a solicitor and advocate of the Supreme Court of Nigeria. Before his doctoral studies, he worked as a University lecturer and a legal practitioner in Nigeria.

Feroz ALI is the Founder of Techgrapher.com, an online platform for managing intellectual property and former Intellectual Property Chair Professor at Indian Institute of Technology Madras, India. Dr. Ali received his J.S.D. from Duke University and is the author of the book THE ACCESS REGIME: PATENT LAW REFORMS FOR AFFORDABLE MEDICINES (OUP, 2016).

Nazma Swastika ARIES is an LL.M Candidate in Business Law. Full time student of Internasional Post-Graduate Program, Gadjah Mada University. Graduated from Law Faculty of Brawijaya University with cum-laude predicate in February 2017. Had spent her last 3 years in bachelor as a reporter at Manifest Student Press Institution of Law Faculty Brawijaya University. Become the selected participant of Student Exchange Program. The first one was Australia Educational Exchange Program which held by Educational Office of Jember District in 2013. The Second program was Exploring Legal Culture 2016 (ELC 2016) as an cooperation program between Law Faculty Brawijaya University, Malang and Law Faculty Leipzig University, Germany. Has a high interest in novels, food, and photography. Traveling is a year round passion.

Songyin BO is currently a year-2 Ph.D. student in Faculty of law, The Chinese University of Hong Kong. Her doctoral research concerns the online dispute resolution mechanisms of e-commerce platforms in China. Before joining CUHK, Ms. Bo practiced law in both U.S. and China, focused mainly on civil litigation, M&A, IPO, etc.

Aafreen COLLACO is currently a part-time Ph.D candidate at O.P. Jindal Global University. She was previously holding a position as an Assistant Professor with the School of Law, Bennett University. She holds an LL.B degree from Goa University and LL.M degree in Intellectual Property Rights and Technology Law from Centre for Post Graduate Legal Studies, O.P. Jindal Global University. For her LL.M thesis, she worked on the topic “IP Protection of Computer Software and the Copyleft Movement: An Indian Perspective.” She was awarded Gold Medal for standing first in LL.M and the Nani A. Palkhiwala Memorial Gold Medal for academic excellence. She has also worked as a Research Assistant at Jindal Initiative on Research in IP & Competition (JIRICO), O.P. Jindal Global University.

Guobin CUI is the Associate Dean for International Affairs and Academics as well as Director of the Center for Intellectual Property at Tsinghua University Law School. Professor Cui earned his Ph.D. in law, LL.M., and B.Sc. in Chemistry from Peking University, and his second LL.M. from Yale Law School. His scholarly interests include intellectual property, antitrust, property, and law and economics theory. He has published more than 20 law review articles and two popular casebooks, “Patent Law: Cases and Materials” (1st edition in 2012, 2nd edition in 2015) and “Copyright Law: Cases and Materials” (2014). Before he joined Tsinghua in 2002, he had practiced IP law in Beijing and Shanghai. In 2008, he worked as an intern for Judge Rader at the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. He was a visiting scholar at the George Washington University Law School in 2008, the University of Chicago Law School in July 2012, the University of Washington Law School in May 2013 and the University of New South Wales in February 2018. He also serves as an adjunct researcher, the Center for Judicial Protection of Intellectual Property, the Supreme People’s Court of China; Legal advisor, Beijing High People’s Court; Specialist Juror, Beijing Intellectual Property Court; and Legal advisor, the People’s Court of Haidian District of Beijing.

Erdenechimeg DASHPUNTSAG was appointed as Dean of Law School, OUT on 1st of January, 2019. She also has worked as IP agent since 2006 and in 2018 she was appointed as Director of the Board members of the Association of Patent agents of Mongolia /AMIPA/. She obtained her PhD in Intellectual Property from Law School, University of Internal Affairs, Mongolia in 2019. She also obtained her Master of law in Comparative study from Nagoya University, Japan in 2010 and Master of Law in Intellectual Property from the University of Turin, Italy in 2017. She has published 6 books and more than 20 research papers and articles in international and domestic law reviews.

Adeet DOBHAL is a Legal Research Fellow at the Centre for WTO Studies (CWS), a think-tank under the Ministry of Commerce, Government of India. A law graduate from Amity Law School, Noida, Adeet was the recipient of the 'Best All-round Student' award from his batch. He also holds a post-graduate diploma from the Indian Society of International Law, Delhi on international trade and business laws. He works on trade law issues concerning agriculture, subsidies and e-commerce amongst others. As a part of CWS, Adeet has also been involved in many upcoming issues in international trade concerning India, including a dispute on India's sugar polices at the WTO. His research interests include trade law, investment law, intellectual property and dispute resolution.

Jingjing HU holds a Doctor of Law degree from Peking University. Between August 2014 to November 2015, she was a research fellow at the Max-Planck Institute for Innovation and Competition. From July 2016-February 2017, she was an invited researcher at the Institute for Intellectual Property affiliated to the Japanese Patent Office. Since 2017, she has been a lecturer of Intellectual Property Law at Southwest University of Political Science and Law in Chongqing, China. She was a visiting scholar at the University of Auckland for two months in 2018. In June 2019, she participated the PROM program of Polish Research Centre for Law and Economy of China at the University of Warsaw. Her teaching and research interests focus on copyright law in cyberspace and infringement of intellectual property rights. She is the author of “Determining Damages for Patent Infringement—A comparative study between China and Germany, Japan”, and authors several peer-reviewed papers in English and Chinese.

Tianxiang HE (China P. R. 1984) is an Assistant Professor at the School of Law, City University of Hong Kong. Dr. He holds a LL.B. degree (Huaqiao University, China, 2007) and a Master degree in International Law (Jinan University, China, 2009). Dr. He received his degree of Ph.D. in IP law at Maastricht University (the Netherlands, 2016), where he was Researcher at the Department of International and European Law, and Ph.D. Fellow at Institute for Globalization and International Regulation (IGIR), and another Ph.D. degree in Criminal Law at Renmin University of China (2017). From August 2012 to July 2013, Dr. He worked in the Research Center for the Legal Systems of Intellectual Property of Waseda University as a visiting researcher. In Europe, the Ius Commune Research School conferred to him an Honorable Mention in the Ius Commune Prize 2014. As of 1st August 2016, Dr. He is working as Assistant Professor in School of Law, City University of Hong Kong. Dr. He is also acting as an External Fellow in IGIR, Maastricht University. He is also serving as a reviewer of Journals such as Asia Pacific Law Review, Hong Kong Law Journal, and Computer Law & Security Review. Dr. He is the author of Copyright and Fan Productivity in China: A Cross-jurisdictional Perspective. Dr. He's articles appeared in SSCI journals such as American Journal of Comparative Law, Queen Mary Journal of Intellectual Property, Journal of the Copyright Society of the U.S.A., and Computer Law & Security Review.

Haifeng HUANG co-chairs Jones Day's intellectual property practice in China and is regularly called on to lead teams and advise clients on their complex business disputes and intellectual property matters. He has a broad practice covering disputes and transactions involving patents, trademarks, copyrights, trade secrets, unfair competition, antitrust, and technology licenses. Haifeng has advised clients on cases in intellectual property courts and other courts and agencies throughout China, as well as before multiple arbitration tribunals. These cases have involved a diverse range of industries, including software and systems, semiconductors, telecommunications, electronics, textiles, chemicals, optics, consumer products, heavy machinery, medical devices, and biotechnology. Haifeng is a frequent speaker on China intellectual property issues and has been recognized for his work in World IP Review, Managing Intellectual Property, IAM Patent, and Chambers Asia-Pacific.

Weijie HUANG, LL.B. and LL.M.. (Sun Yat-sen University), Ph.D (the Faculty of Law, University of Hong Kong) is currently an assistant professor at Shenzhen University Law School. She got the 2017-2018 Fulbright-RGC Hong Kong Research Scholar Award and studied in the University of California at Berkeley, School of Law as a visiting student researcher from September 1, 2017 through June 30, 2018. She is now studying in Singapore Management University, School of Law after she was selected to participate in a Ph.D. training program. Her research interests include copyright, user-generated content, media law and law and economics. She got first prize in 2016 Guangdong Province Law Society-Civil & Commercial Law Association Conference and the Outstanding Paper Award in 2017 China Law and Economics Forum. She also ranked Top 10 in 2018 ATRIP Essay Competition. She was involved in many research projects including “Digital China” committed by Australian Research Council, “Joint Research Project on Prosumerism and IP” funded by Eurasia-Pacific Uninet, “Fair Use and Creativity across the US, the EU, Hong Kong and Mainland China” committed by the General Research Fund of Hong Kong, and a National Nomocracy and Legal Theory Project “Governance of Plagiarism: Between Academic Ethics and Legal Rules” sponsored by Ministry of Justice of PRC.

Mohammad Towhidul ISLAM is a Professor of Law at the University of Dhaka, Bangladesh. He received his PhD in intellectual property law from the Macquarie University, Australia. He holds an LLM in international human rights law from the University of East London, United Kingdom and an LLB (honours) and an LLM from the University of Dhaka, Bangladesh. He attended the UN/UNITAR Fellowship in international law held in 2006 at the Hague Academy of International Law, and participated in the WIPO-WTO Colloquium for Intellectual Property Law Teachers held in Geneva at the WIPO and WTO headquarters. He presented papers in many conferences including the ATRIP Congress 2017 held in Wellington and the SIEL Global Conference 2018 held in Washington DC. He serves on several editorial boards and reviews articles for a number of reputed journals. He also offers his consultative services to the government agencies, international institutions, national and international non- government organizations. He is also a regular op-ed legal issues contributor in leading national dailies. His current teaching and research areas include intellectual property law, corporate law, land law, human rights law, and clinical legal education. His research articles appear in a number of well-recognized journals. One of his research monographs was published in the United Kingdom.

Priyal JAIN is a 4th year student of BBA-LLB (Hons) in ICFAI Law School, Hyderabad, India. She holds an All India Rank of "4" in the First Ever National IPR Olympiad organized by ISERD, India in 2019. She has completed "6" certificate courses in the field of IPR from the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO). As a recognition to her average score of 90% in all the certificate courses, she was also given a joint scholarship by Korean Intellectual Property Institute, Korean Invention Promotion Association and Korean Advanced Institute of Science and Technology to pursue the course of IP Panorama offered by WIPO in which she again scored 100% marks. She has recently been accredited in Mediation Advocacy from the Standards and Competencies in Mediation Advocacy (SCMA), London. She has also been certified in Arbitration Advocacy by the Kapila & Nirmal Hingorani Foundation. She has been endorsed by the Singapore International Mediation Institute for Mediation Advocacy. She has also been empaneled on The PACT's roster for ADR/CDR lawyers, affiliated with the Federation of Associations of Small Industries of India and the Association of Mediation Assessors, Training and Instructors. She has also written two research papers that have been published in International journals. She is eagerly interested to explore the field of IPR, ADR and Competition Law in depth and plans to work in it in her future.

Mohammad Ataul KARIM is an advocate, academic and legal researcher, currently serving as Senior Lecturer of Law at East West University, Dhaka, Bangladesh. He obtained his LL.B. (Bachelor of Laws) and LL.M. (Master of Laws) from University of Dhaka, Bangladesh. He received his second LL.M. in Intellectual Property Law (Specialized in Patents and Designs Law) jointly offered by WIPO Academy, Turkish Patents and Trademarks Offices and Ankara University, Turkey. His papers are published in referred national and international journals, including Queen Mary Journal of Intellectual Property Law, Journal of Intellectual Property and Practice, Journal of World Intellectual Property. He has number of national and international seminar and conference papers in his credits. He has been awarded with University Grants Commission (UGC) of Bangladesh Gold Medal, 2016 for the best research publication in law. His areas of interest include Intellectual Property Law, Constitutional Law and Jurisprudence.

Tiwari KUHU is currently pursuing Ph.D. at Rajiv Gandhi School of IP Law, IIT Kharagpur, India, one of the premier IP Law Schools in India under the supervision of Dr. Niharika Sahoo Bhattacharya. She has done her Masters of Law (LL.M) with the specialization in Intellectual Property and Technology Laws from the National Law University Jodhpur, India. Her doctoral study is in the interdisciplinary area of Intellectual Property Laws and Pharmaceutical laws. Particularly, she is focusing on the regulatory aspects of Trademark and Pharmaceutical law, and its implication on consumers and pharmaceutical industry. Prior to joining the Ph.D. program in the year 2018, she has served as an Assistant Professor at Hidayatullah National Law University for three and a half years.

Qi Jun KWONG is a Doctoral Candidate in the Graduate School of Law, Nagoya University under the supervision of Professor Masabumi Suzuki. Her topic concerns regional economies and cross-border patent dealings. Qi Jun earned her LL.B. from Nagoya University, serving as valedictorian of her class in 2015. She completed her LL.M. studies in 2017 under a research grant provided by the Ministry of Education of Japan (MEXT) and a scholarship provided by the Sato Yo International Foundation. Apart from pursuing her doctoral studies, she lectured on intellectual property law at Meijo University, Japan. She is currently interning at the Legislative and Policy Advice Section, Patent Law Division of the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO).

Jingze LI is a Ph.D. candidate at the Tilburg Institute for Law, Technology, and Society (TILT), Tilburg University of the Netherlands. She is doing a Ph.D. research about intellectual property rules in the interactions between open source and standard setting organizations. The research explores what are the possible means of IPR rules in the interplay, how (newly) established rules will affect innovation and competition and what are the competition law limits to these arrangements. Her Ph.D. is currently focusing on the EU jurisdiction, with necessary comparisons to the US and China. She has presented and published some of her previous research in conferences. The ITU Kaleidoscope Academic Conferences 2017 (awarded “Young Author Recognition”) and the British and Irish Law, Education and Technology Association Annual conference 2017. She did a bachelor of Geophysics in Central South University in China, then studied law of two master degrees at China-EU school of Law of China University of Political Science and Law: a JM of Chinese Law and an LL.M. of European International Law of Hamburg University. She has worked as an intern for the legal department of Siemens and some IP groups of British and American law firms in China. She has passed the China National Bar Examination. She is fluent in both Chinese and English.

Yahong LI, JSD (Stanford), is an associate professor and director of the LLM Program in Technology and IP Law at HKU Department of Law. She is the author/editor of Patents and Innovation in Mainland China and Hong Kong: Two Systems in One Country Compared (CUP, 2017), China Chapter in Lionel Bently (eds.), International Copyright Law and Practice (LexisNexis, 2015 onward), Copyright, Internet and the Balance of Rights (HKU Press, 2016), Imitation to Innovation in China: The Role of Patents in Biotech and Pharmaceutical Industries (EE, 2010), and International and Comparative Intellectual Property: Law, Policy and Practice (LexisNexis, 2005), and published in top journals including IIC, LIT, QMJIP, Cardozo AELJ, and UPenn JIL. She was awarded the faculty research output prizes and the Cambridge-HKU fellowship, and was a visiting scholar/professor at Harvard, Max Planck, Santa Clara, Academia Sinica, PKU and SMU. She frequently spoke at international conferences and delivered public lectures at CREATE Center, WIPO IP Summer School, and many mainland Chinese universities. She is a member of Executive Committee of the ATRIP, a council member of the China IP Law Association, and an honorary advisor of the Hong Kong Institute of Patent Attorneys. She sits in the Expert Committees of the following institutions: Peking University Great Bay Area IP Institute, the China National Copyright Trading Platform, and IP Utilization and Protection of Guangzhou ETDZ. She has supervised more than 15 PhD students, and teaches the courses of Copyright and Creativity, International and Comparative IP Law, and IP, Innovation and Development.

Yangzi LI, LL.B. (Guangdong University of Foreign Studies) and LL.M. (The Chinese University of Hong Kong), is a Ph.D. student in the Faculty of Law, The Chinese University of Hong Kong. Her research interests include intellectual property law, technology law and regulations, artificial intelligence policies. Her paper “The Obscure Consumer in the Chinese Intellectual Property Law” has been published on European Intellectual Property Review. She was involved in research projects including “Open Government Data License in Hong Kong” granted by General Research Fund of Hong Kong and “Taxation and Development: Case Study of China” committed by Early Career Scheme.

Jyh-An LEE is an Associate Professor of Law at the Chinese University of Hong Kong, where he serves as the Director of the LLB Programme and Assistant Dean for Undergraduate Studies. He holds a J.S.D. from Stanford Law School and an LL.M from Harvard Law School. During his studies at Stanford Law School, Dr. Lee was appointed the John M. Olin Fellow in Law and Economics. Prior to joining the Chinese University of Hong Kong, he taught at National Chengchi University and was an Associate Research Fellow in the Center for Information Technology Innovation at Academia Sinica in Taiwan. He was the Legal Lead and Co-Lead of Creative Commons Taiwan (2011–2014) and an advisory committee member for Copyright Amendment in the Taiwan Intellectual Property Office (TIPO) at the Ministry of Economic Affairs (2011–2014). He has been the Legal Lead of the Creative Commons Hong Kong Chapter since October 2018. Professor Lee is currently a member of the advisory board of the European Center for E-Commerce & Internet Law affiliated with the University of Vienna. In 2016, he was appointed as a domain name dispute resolution panelist by the Asian Domain Name Dispute Resolution Centre (ADNDRC) and continues to serve in this capacity. Before starting his academic career, he was a practicing lawyer in Taiwan, specializing in technology and business transactions.

Su-Hua LEE received her Bachelor of Laws from National Taipei University and Master of Laws (Magister iuris comparativi, M. iur. Comp.) from Rheinischen Friedrich-Wilhelms-Universität Bonn, and earned the Doctor of Laws (Ph.D.) from National Taiwan University in 2006. Being scholarship holders of the German DAAD Program for Ph.D. students and MPI (Max Planck Institute for Innovation and Competition) in Munich, she was a visiting researcher in MPI from 2005 to 2007. Lee has been Professor of Law at National Taiwan University since 2016 and previously served in law faculties at National Tsing Hua University and National Taipei University. Over the years, she has published articles in various journals in Chinese as well as in English. Lee conducted research projects funded by public and private sectors. Since 2015, she has been leading a research team to help the government to draft the bill of drug approval-patent linkage (patent linkage). Lee is a member of governmental expert groups relating to intellectual property and pharmaceutical affairs. She participates in Asian academic groups focusing on current and emerging issues of Asian intellectual property laws.

Sujin LEE is international business development director at CJ 4DPLEX, a company that specializes in supplying innovative technologies to global cinema industry. Sujin is responsible for Europe and Australian market and has been instrumental for fast expansion of 4DX technology throughout the world. Sujin also has a lot of research work experiences especially in the field of intellectual property law and media industry. She published 13 articles with Korea Copyright Commission as a free-lance researcher especially in the field of private copying, European Union Copyright directives, and the new IP related amendments proposed in Thailand, Russia, and countries in Africa. She also worked at Korean Communications Standards Commissions as a short-term researcher studying the online infringement of personal right cases in Korea. Sujin also participated in publishing yearbook at Korean Information Society Development Institute regarding British media market and related media policies. Sujin was more into Journalism and languages and never studied law before a short summer study in English law at London School of Economics and Political Sciences in 2012. After finding out how fascinating IP law is, she pursued her academic enthusiasm at Seoul National University studying Intellectual Property Law, focusing private copying in the digital age during her master studies, and expected to start her doctoral degree in coming March. Sujin speaks fluent English and has intermediate skills in Spanish. Now she is learning French.

Heng Gee LIM is a Professor of Law at the Faculty of Law, Universiti Teknologi MARA, Shah Alam, Malaysia. Dr Lim specialises in Intellectual Property law and has taught the subject in various universities both in Malaysia and in the United Kingdom. He has published several articles relating to Intellectual Property laws in academic journals, both in Malaysia and overseas, as well as presented papers at various Intellectual Property conferences and seminars. He has also contributed chapters to books on various aspects of intellectual property law. Besides his academic duties, Dr Lim is a resource person at the Intellectual Property Training Centre of the Intellectual Property Corporation of Malaysia. He also serves as a member of various Advisory Committees on Intellectual Property Laws in the Intellectual Property Division of the Ministry of Domestic Trade and Consumer Affairs (now the Intellectual Property Corporation of Malaysia), advising on various amendments to the intellectual property laws. Dr Lim represented Malaysia as an expert at three WIPO Intergovernmental Committee Intersessional Working Groups on Intellectual Property and Genetic Resources, Traditional Knowledge and Folklore” in 2010 and 2011. He is also a member of the Steering Committee on Intellectual Property Commercialisation of the Innovation and Commercialisation Division of the Ministry of Science, Technology and Innovation. In June 2008, Dr Lim was appointed a Board Member of the Malaysian Intellectual Property Corporation for a two year term. In January 2012, he was appointed a member of the Intellectual Property Committee of the Innovation Agency of Malaysia, an agency under the Prime Minister’s Department.

Kung-Chung LIU holds a Doctor of Law degree from the Ludwig Maximilians Universitat (University of Munich). Between 1992 to January 31, 2017, he was a research fellow at the Institute for Social Sciences and Philosophy (Jurisprudence Division) and Institutum Iurisprudentiae, Academia Sinica. In 2003-04, he was a Visiting Professor at the Faculty of Law of the National University of Singapore and Visiting Senior Research Fellow for the IP Academy of Singapore. In 2006-07, he served as one of the founding Commissioners of the National Communications Commission in Taiwan. Since 2007, he has been co-appointed by the Institute of Law for Science and Technology, National Tsing Hua University. Since 2010, he was further co-appointed by the Graduate Institute of Technology, Innovation & Intellectual Property Management, National Chengchi University. Between April 2014 and June 2015, he was a Visiting Professor at the School of Law, Singapore Management University, and founded the Applied Research Centre for Intellectual Assets and the Law in Asia (ARCIALA) in May 2015. Beginning from February 1, 2017 Professor Liu re-joined SMU and resumed the directorship of ARCIALA. In addition, he serves as Professor at Renmin University of China. His teaching and research interests are intellectual property law, antitrust and unfair competition law, and communications law. He is the author of twelve books in Chinese, the editor and co-editor of eight books in English, and authors over 100 peer-reviewed papers in English and Chinese.

Jianchen LIU is currently a research associate at Applied Research Centre for Intellectual Assets and the Law in Asia, School of Law, Singapore Management University. He is also a Ph.D. candidate at Renmin University of China, majoring in IP law. He holds an LL.M. degree and an LL.B. degree, both from East China University of Political Science and Law. His research area mainly focuses on the intersection between IP law and competition law, and his most recent research topics are artificial intelligence and big data issues related to IP. To date, he has published ten articles in respect of these topics on several journals. Prior to pursuing his academic career, he once worked as an IP lawyer for a leading Chinese law firm and a world-renowned US law firm for three years.

Chien-Chih LU (Jesse) is an assistant professor at National Chengchi University College of Communication with Doctor of Juridical Science (J.S.D.) degree from the University of California, Berkeley, School of Law, Chien-Chih is eager to bring to the academic field his strong interest and experience in entertainment law and media governance. He received the UC Berkeley International and Comparative Law Certificate and UC Berkeley Public Interest and Social Justice Certificate when he finished several research projects concerning international Intellectual Property and social justice issues. During Chien-Chih's academic career, his thesis and research papers have won numerous scholarships and outstanding thesis awards. He was a member and student editor of Berkeley Journal of Entertainment and Sports Law (BJESL) and the chair of Karuk-Berkeley Indigenous Law Collaborative (Honor in Leadership Certificate). Since 2012, he has been joining the Music Copyright Infringement Resource project supported by the University Southern California (USC) School of Law. At these positions, his research focuses on topics of copyright law, music licensing, advertising and branding law, artistic freedom and cultural policy.

Mardiansyah chose to take law degree as his career. After completing a bachelor's degree with “cumlaude” at Ahmad Dahlan University, Yogyakarta. Currently, Mardi is active as an apprentice advocate to provide freely legal assistance and also Mardi is studying master of laws in the law Faculty of Gadjah Mada University, Yogyakarta. Some international experiences such as volunteering for international activity in Yogyakarta of 2014, participants of the 2018 Un-Habitat conference in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia and also a participant in the model of United Nations in Bali, Indonesia of 2019. He also really likes to look for national shipping that is in Indonesia. Mardi is also currently active as a blood donor, then, He also has high interest to do hiking, reading, writing and discussing.

Farizah MOHAMED ISA is currently attached with the Faculty of Law, Universiti Teknologi Mara (UiTM) Malaysia as a senior lecturer. She holds an LLB (Hons) from Liverpool John Moores University UK and an LLM (Hons) in Intellectual Property from UiTM, Malaysia. Her field of expertise are mainly intellectual property, contract and tort law. She has also taught Media Law as a servicing subject to other faculties at UiTM. As a senior member of the Faculty, she has also held administrative positions, namely, Head of Program for Bachelor of Legal Studies from 2003-2007 for the Faculty. From 2009 to 2011, she was appointed as the Head, Intellectual Property Management at the Centre for University-Industry Linkages, UiTM. She was appointed again as the Head, Intellectual Property Management, Research Innovation and Business Unit, UiTM in 2017 to date. In that capacity, her responsibilities include giving IP awareness workshops to researchers and academicians within the University, and she has also been invited by various sectors outside the University to share knowledge on IP. She is also active in research, and has presented papers in conferences mainly on patent law, specifically on issues relating to biotechnology and pharmaceuticals. Currently she is a member of Innovation and Technology Managers Association Malaysia (ITMA) and is completing her PhD on DNA patents and its effects on medical advancement in Malaysia.

Tran Van NAM has been lecturing at the National Economics University (NEU) Hanoi, Vietnam, since 1989, and is currently Dean, NEU Faculty of Law. Tran Van Nam graduated from Hanoi Law University with LL.B., earned a MBA from Boise States University, (USA); acquired a LL.M. in IP from University of Turin (Italy) and obtained his Ph.D. from Hanoi National Economics University. Nam also has his Doctor of Law (LL.D) from Vietnam Graduate Academy of Social Sciences. He was the Fulbright visiting lecturer at the University Of Washington School Of Law for the 2002-2003 School Year and later became an active member of IP Collegium, Japan Institute for Promoting Invention & Innovation (JIPII). Tran Van Nam is the co- editor of the Laws on Intellectual Property textbook, published by National Economics University Press. He co-authored the training manual book designed for the Vietnam’s Supreme Procuracy; so called “Cyble Crimes in Vietnam”. He is also co-authored of books published by Indersciences (USA), Strategic information technology and portfolio management; with Albert Wee Kwan Tan, Cuthbert N Shepherdson et al. In September 2019, Tran Van Nam acted as the co-chair of the National Conference: Startup: the legal perspective for investment held in Hanoi under the auspice of the Ministry of Science and Technology’s Program 844 (V-Startup), In December 2019; he participated in the National Techfest, held in Ha Long City, Vietnam as a speaker and a co-moderator of the Edutech Village. Since 2002 to date, Tran Van Nam has participated in the Vietnam International Arbitration Centre (VIAC) as an international arbitrator, practicing trade law and intellectual property law

Chanmi OH is a journalist at The Bell of MoneyToday Group in South Korea, a company which specialized in capital market news report. Chanmi is responsible for industry department, for now especially in Biopharma M&A and licensing deal. She worked as a news producer in 2013 and 2014 at KBS, the national public broadcaster of South Korea. She directed the ‘KBS global 24’ international news program. Chanmi also has a lot of research work experiences especially in the field of intellectual property law. She published a lot of articles with Korean copyright commission as a freelance researcher in 2016 and on Law & Technology in 2015 and 2016, especially field of Copyright of Robot and IP for Artificial intelligence. Chanmi is participated in publishing a yearbook at Moneytoday group regarding the industry development with M&A deal of Korean company. Chanmi was finished her last course of Ph.D. in Intellectual Property Law at Seoul National University, after receiving her master's degree in intellectual property law at SNU. She also has a bachelor degree in law. Her works are specifically focused on Big Data and AI Copyright. She is looking for a chance to have a post doctoral course in other country and also for teaching. For her master's degree, she published a paper titled 'Copyright in Fair use for Journalism. As copyright for journalism is increasing in importance in Korea, she studied how journalists can use copyright works including big data freely for news reporting. As she likes to learn other cultures and languages, she studied Chinese at the Tianjin University of China and took an intermediate class for two months in 2008. She interned at CLC center in New York City for a year in 2010.

Meghana PARIKH holds Masters of Science (M.Sc.) with specialization in Organic Chemistry (2000) and LL. B (2012) from Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda. She is recipient of three Gold medals in M.Sc. and have received several scholarships and awards. She started her career in 2000 with reputed pharmaceutical company in R&D department and eventually started working for IP department as in-house counsel. She is qualified Indian patent Agent and Advocate with practice in Patents, Trade marks and Design Laws. She was selected by Dept. of Industrial Policy & Promotion (DIPP), Indian Patent Office (IPO) and Japan Patent Office (JPO) to attend JPO-IPO Training for IP Lawyers, October 2014, Tokyo, Japan. She is visiting faculty at her alma mater and teaches Intellectual Property Laws to post-graduation students in Pharmacy and Applied Chemistry departments. She has been invited as speaker at several forums to sensitize on Intellectual Property Rights. She is an Associate Partner at Nanavati Associates, Advocates, Patents and Trade mark Attorneys, and specializes in prior art searches, patent analysis, freedom-to-operate opinions, invalidation searches, drafting, filing and prosecuting patent applications, counselling on patentability of invention, support for product selection/identification, technical support for patent litigation and much more. She also, handles Trade marks and Design matters. She is a cycling enthusiast and participates in marathon and triathlon events across the country.

Stefan PAPASTEFANOU is a lecturer and PhD student at the Center for Transnational IP, Media and Technology Law and Policy at Bucerius Law School, Hamburg, Germany and currently a Visiting Scholar at the Applied Research Centre for Intellectual Assets and the Law in Asia (ARCIALA) at the Singapore Management University. He studied law at Bucerius Law School, Hamburg and finished his First States Exam in 2016. His PhD project was awarded with the Friedrich-Naumann-Stiftung PhD Scholarship in 2017, an additional scholarship from the Schmidt, von der Osten und Huber law firm in 2018, the ARCIALA research scholarship in and an additional research scholarship from the German Academic Exchange Service in 2019. His research focus lies on International IP relationships and comparative legal analysis of modern technology and recent developments within the digital environment. Next to his teaching and research position at the IP Center of Bucerius Law School, Stefan Papastefanou also worked at the Hamburg office of Latham & Watkins LLP in the IP/IT Department. His PhD project and other independent research projects have been presented and discussed during the GRUR Tagung Junge Wissenschaft 2018 in Munich and 2019 in Leipzig and also at the 37th ATRIP Annual Congress 2018 in Helsinki, where his presentation was awarded the 1st place in the Early Career Workshop competition, as well as the First IPIRA Conference in Kuala Lumpur in 2019.

Sanjaykumar PATEL is founder and Patent & Trademark Attorney at EXCELON IP Law Firm with 15 years of experience in IPR Field. Sanjaykumar is a registered Indian Patent Agent since 2007. Sanjaykumar Patel graduated from L.M College of Pharmacy (2003) and done post graduate (M.Pharm) from L.M College of Pharmacy (2003), acquired P.G Diploma in Patent law from NALSAR University (2010) and earned LL.B from M.S University (2013). Sanjaykumar has worked in IPR Department of B&S Group 8UK), Alembic Pharmaceuticals, Astron Research of Intas Pharmaceuticals and Torrent Pharmaceuticals. He is member of "IP Collegium" Group of Japan affiliated to JIPII (Japan Institute for Promoting Invention & Innovation) as Patent Attorney from India. Sanjaykumar is Startup IP Facilitator recognized by Department of Industrial Policy & Promotion (DIPP). Sanjaykumar is also on IPR panel as IPR experts at Atal Incubation Centre, L.M College of Pharmacy, Gujarat Technology University (GTU), Anand Pharmacy College, L.J Institute of Engineering and Technology, Swarnim Startup & Innovation University and DDIT, Saurashtra University, RK University and BK Modi Pharmacy college. Sanjaykumar was listed as top 100 IP leaders of India by World IP Forum in 2018.

Nishara Madushani PATTERSON, a Registered nurse and a Bachelor of Science (Honors) in Nursing graduate from University of Sri Jayewardenepura, Sri Lanka and she was an exchange student at Kristianstad University, Sweden. After the graduation she worked at University of Sri Jayewardenepura as a Demonstrator and at present, she has been working as an Academic Coordinator at the Department of Nursing, The Open University of Sri Lanka. Research interests are focused on Psychiatric Nursing and Nursing Education including academic misconduct.

Brinda PAULRAJ is faculty of law in the School of Excellence in Law, the Tamil Nadu Dr.Ambedkar Law University, Chennai. She has post graduated in Property Law from the Tamil Nadu Dr.Ambedkar Law University and holds a doctoral degree in “Property Rights of Tribals in India- a Juridical Study”. She has participated in various national and international conferences and presented papers related to property rights and intellectual property rights. She has published more than 15 articles in reputed journals and organized many national seminars and workshops.

Yayuan PENG is a Ph.D. student at FUDAN Law School where she focuses on international technology transfer, intellectual property law and international environmental law. At FUDAN university, she published 9 articles and 4 books, and was invited to make presentations in several academic conferences. She's latest research includes World Bank Sanction and Global Pact for the Environment(draft). She once worked as a part-time writer at an international NGO "Chinese Initiative on International Law" where was responsible for WECHAT column "International law academic activities". Besides, she has great interested in Moot Court and got the award "Honorable Mention for Best Respondent Memorandum" in Willem C. Vis (East) Oriental Competition (2018 HK).

Mohammad Ataur RAHMAN completed his Bar Vocation Course from University of Law, Bloomsbury, UK. His elective subjects included Advanced Civil Litigation & Judicial Review. Prior to that he completed the Graduate Diploma in Law & passed the Common Professional Examination with distinction from the University of Westminster, London & worked as clinical negligence paralegal for a law-firm in Bristol, UK. After returning to Pakistan he has worked as an Associate Advocate in the Corporate & Litigation department of Liaquat Merchant Associates, a legal 500 firm incorporated in Karachi. As a Lecturer , Dr. Rahman teaches International Law, Jurisprudence and Law of Torts at Shaheed Zulfiqar Ali Bhutto University of Law, Karachi, Pakistan. Dr Rahman is a medical graduate graduate from the Aga Khan University & a Member of the Royal College of Surgeons. He has worked in a number of hospitals in Pakistan & the National Health Service of the UK in clinical capacity in the specialties of Orthopaedics, Trauma & Neurosurgery before changing to a legal career.

Ramesh Kumar RANGASAMY holds Masters in Business Administration, Masters in Social Work and Bachelors in Statistics from Bharathiyar University, Coimbatore, India. Between October, 2005 to October, 2012 he was part of Cognizant Technologies Solutions Pvt Ltd, he worked in various roles. From 2008 to 2012, he worked as Subject Matter Expert (SME) in Claims Processing at United Health Group, Basking Ridge, New Jersey, USA. Beginning from September 2018, he joined The Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University, Chennai, India and pursuing LL. B., (Hons.), he worked on various papers, they fall under various fields such as IPR, Environmental Law, Banking Law etc.

Rahadian Girindwardhana Budi SANTOSO is an LL.M Candidate in Business Law and a Full time student of International Post-Graduate Program, Universitas Gadjah Mada. Graduated his under graduate from Faculty of Law Universitas Gadjah Mada on August 2017. Active in social organization as the chairman of youth association at his hometown and also active in campus organization as the vice chairman of KMMIH FH UGM. Business, technology and human rights is the field that draws his interest. Have the experience following the event of 4th Conference of Human Rights: Human Rights in Southeast Asia: Theory Meet Practice in 2019 and become the participant of model United Nations in Bali on 2017. He has a high interest in music, travelling and photography as his passion.

M. Sakthivel is an Assistant Professor of Law at the Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University, New Delhi, graduated in law from Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University, Chennai and completed his post graduation with specializations in IPR & Environmental Laws from the School of Legal Studies, CUSAT, Kerala and conferred with doctoral degree from the IUCIPRS, CUSAT under the guidance of Prof. N.S. Gopalakrishnan. His doctoral research was with a sprite to pioneer in interdisciplinary research on “Protection of Authors’ Right in Live Streaming: A Study in the Context of Digital Broadcasting”. A few publications on IPR issues ranging from “Webcasters’ Protection in Copyright, Broadcasters’ Rights, Copyrightability of Sports Contents, Patentability Standards with Special Reference to Pharmaceuticals to Industrial Designs” in renowned national and international law journals add credit to his early career. He is currently working on a project titled “Interface between Taxation and IPR” – (A funded research project by IUCIPRS).

Niharika SALAR is currently pursuing her masters in law (with specialization in Intellectual Property & Technology Law) at Faculty of Law, National University of Singapore. She recently graduated with bachelors in law from National University of Study & Research in Law, Ranchi, India. During her time at under graduation, she represented NUSRL at various moot court competitions and trial advocacy competitions in India, in the capacity of a speaker as well as a researcher. Her research interests include inter disciplinary research apart from intellectual property right issues around the world. After interning with major IP law firms in India including Remfry & Sagar, Gurgaon and R.K. Dewan & Co, Delhi during her under graduation, she went on to National University of Singapore to pursue her masters in Law. She has been published as well as worked in the position of an editor on a few portals; both online and print in furtherance of her keen interest in academia. She is also currently working part time as a Graduate Student Researcher for Professor Chalmers (Vice Dean, Research, NUS Law) on his project with respect to Comparative Competition Laws from the Indian perspective.

Mayuree SENGUPTA is pursuing her research from Indian Institute of Management Kashipur. She is an alumna of Indian Institute of Technology Kharagpur. She is a Facilitator of Patents under the Government of India Scheme for Facilitating Start-Ups Intellectual Property Protection (SIPP). A registered Indian Patent Agent, she has previously presented her work in international conferences. Her research interests comprise Intellectual Property, Patents, Policy and Strategic Management.

Owais SHAIKH completed his PhD with Magna-cum-Laude from Ludwig Maximilians Universität (Munich University), Germany. He wrote his PhD dissertation on impact of exclusive right on pharmaceutical approval data on access to medicine at the Max Planck Institute for Innovation and Competition in Munich, which was published by Springer. Dr. Shaikh also has a Master of Laws in Intellectual Property (LL.M) from University of Augsburg (Munich Intellectual Property Law Center). Apart from these, he holds an MBA and a BBA from the Institute of Business Administration, Karachi. As an Associate Professor, Dr. Shaikh teaches Intellectual Property Law and Legal Research Methods at Shaheed Zulfiqar Ali Bhutto University of Law, Karachi, Pakistan, where he is also leads the Department of Law. Moreover, he is a Tutor for the Intellectual Property Management course at the World Intellectual Property Organization Academy. He also acts as a mentor to various technology startups and assists them in IP protection. Previously he worked as Management Consultant with Siemens AG in Germany as well as Assistant Director at the Intellectual Property Organization of Pakistan where he assisted the Registrar Trade Marks in ex-parte hearings. He is interested in the interface of law and emerging technologies such as AI, specifically robotics and Big Data, with a focus on developing countries.

Dilip SHARMA is working as an Assistant Professor at ICFAI Law School, Hyderabad, India. He is also pursuing his Ph.D. from Nalsar University of Law, Hyderabad, India in the field of 'Artificial Intelligence and IPR'. Mr. Sharma has qualified the UGC-NET exam in July, 2018. He has completed his post-graduate (LL.M.) in IPR Laws from National Law University, Jodhpur, India. During his LL.M., Mr. Sharma has secured highest attainable grade in his LL.M. dissertation on "Protection of Non-conventional Trademarks: Issues and the Road Ahead". He has done his graduation i.e. B.A. LL.B. (IPR Hons.) from Institute of Law, Nirma University, Ahmedabad, India. He also has a teaching experience of one academic year as an Assistant Professor at School of Law, Sandip University, Nashik, India. He was also invited by various Governmental organizations like Institute of Forest Biodiversity, India to deliver guest lectures on different areas of IPR. Mr. Sharma has three research paper publications and five research paper presentations in his account. He has also attended and cleared the GIAN Course on 'Patents, Specialized Licenses & Issues' organized by Ministry of Human Resource Development and University Grant Commission, India. Being an IP enthusiastic he has attended a number of seminars and workshops to enhance his knowledge in the field of IPR. Mr. Sharma is also a distinguished member of International Council of Jurists.

Rujitha SHENOY is currently working as Assistant Professor of Law at National Law University, Odisha, India, She is teaching IPR and Property Laws for undergraduate students and post graduate students. Before joining NLU Odisha she taught IP laws for post graduate students at IUCIPRS, Cochin University. Also taught International Laws and IPR at Gujarat National Law University. She is specialized in IPR & commercial Laws, and doing Phd in the area of biotechnology patents. She has been teaching under graduates as well as post graduates for the last seven years. She has presented papers in national and international conference and has published in national and international journals. Also Recipient of IPR Justice Ayyangar summer fellowship of Cochin University.

Haochen SUN is Associate Professor of Law and Director of Law and Technology Center at the University of Hong Kong Faculty of Law. His research and teaching focuses on the theoretical and policy foundation of intellectual property, Chinese intellectual property law, and international and comparative intellectual property law. His most recent research is concerned with copyright law and the public interest, intellectual property protection of luxury goods, and intellectual property and social justice. Haochen has won the HKU Faculty of Law Research Output Prize twice. He co-edited The Luxury Economy and Intellectual Property (Oxford University Press, 2015) with Professors Barton Beebe and Madhavi Sunder. He is currently completing a book that aims to put forth a new ethical theory of copyright and the public interest. The book will be published by Cambridge University Press in 2018. He is also co-editing The Cambridge Handbook of Copyright Limitations and Exceptions in Comparative Perspective (Cambridge University Press, forthcoming 2018) with Professors Shyamkrishna Balganesh and Wee Loon Ng-Loy. Haochen has been a visiting professor at the University of California, Davis, School of Law and the University of North Carolina School of Law. Before joining HKU, he worked as a research fellow at the Harvard Berkman Klein Center for Internet & Society and the Max Planck Institute for Innovation and Competition. Haochen has given public lectures at many leading law schools in North America, Europe and Asia. He has also spoken at many international conferences. His recent work on intellectual property has been selected for presentation at the Fourth Harvard-Stanford International Junior Faculty Forum, the Plenary Session of the Eleventh Intellectual Property Scholars Conference, and the Fourth Junior Scholars in Intellectual Property Workshop at Michigan State University College of Law. Haochen has organized many international conferences on intellectual property. He launched the HKU Lecture in Intellectual Property and the Insights in Intellectual Property Practice public lecture series in 2015 and 2016 respectively. These events have featured public lectures and talks by leading intellectual property scholars, practitioners and governmental officials. In addition, Haochen has advised leading law firms and companies in the entertainment, information technology, and luxury and fashion sectors on matters relating to intellectual property protection. His opinions about intellectual property have appeared in Forbes, The Los Angeles Times, The New York Times, South China Morning Post, Ming Pao, Shenzhen Satellite TV, and RTHK.

Masabumi SUZUKI has been teaching intellectual property law at Nagoya University Graduate School of Law in Japan since April 2002, and is Dean of the School since April 2018. He received an LL.B. from the University of Tokyo (1981) and an LL.M. from Harvard Law School (1986), and was admitted to the New York Bar in 1987. In 1981, he joined the Japanese Ministry of International Trade and Industry (MITI, now METI). At the Ministry, he was Director for North American Trade Policy Planning (1995-1998), and Director of the Office of Intellectual Property Policy (1999-2001) as well as the Office of Trade Policy Review (2001-2002). He also served as Visiting Fellow at the Brookings Institution (1998-99). He is currently a member of the Japanese government's advisory councils on Patent Law and Copyright Law. He is also Director of the Japan Association of Industrial Property Law, the Copyright Law Association of Japan, and the Japan Association of International Economic Law. Professor Suzuki's recent works include "Legal Issues Concerning Standard Essential Patents: International Trends and Japan's Strategy," RIETI Discussion Paper Series 18-J-020 (2018) (in Japanese); Realization of Substantive Law through Legal Proceedings (Mohr Siebeck, 2017) (co-editor with Professor Alexander Bruns); "International Norm Setting and Its Localization on Intellectual Property," 19 Quarterly Jurist 37 (2016) (in Japanese); "Legal Issues concerning Enforcement of Standard Essential Patents," RIETI Discussion Paper Series 15-J-06 (2015) (in Japanese).

Zhyldyz TEGIZBEKOVA, PhD in Law, Associate Professor, Law School, AlaToo International University, Kyrgyzstan. The areas of her research interests and teaching are Intellectual Property Law, International Law, Transport and Human Rights. Since Spring 2019, Zhyldyz has been teaching "Traditional Knowledge, Traditional Expression of Culture" course through the WIPO Academy's on-line platform. In 2018-2019, Zhyldyz was a Fulbright Visiting Professor at DePaul University (Chicago, USA). Mrs. Tegizbekova worked in the international and national projects, as well as had experience of legal practice. In 2010 and 2013, Zhyldyz was a Visiting Scholar at Law College, DePaul University, where she studied and did her research on IP, Customary Law and Traditional Knowledge issues. For over three years (2015-2018), she worked as an Expert of the Security Council under the President of Kyrgyzstan. Currently, Zhyldyz cooperates with the IP Office of Kyrgyzstan and she is doing her research on “The Development of Intellectual Property Rights in Central Asia: the WIPO System and National Regulations”. She is the author of 4 books and over 30 peer-reviewed papers in English and Russian.

Jie WANG (1985) is currently an Assistant Professor at Koguan Law School, Shanghai Jiaotong University. His research focuses on Intellectual Property Law, particularly on copyright law, and also covers European Law and Comparative law. In Oct. 2016, he finished his PhD research and received this doctor degree from Maastricht University, Netherlands. In 2012, he successfully acquired scholarship from Max Planck Institute for Innovation and Competition, and had done study there for 14 months as a guest researcher. So far, he has been invited to attend and present at the conferences held in the US, UK, Germany, Belgium, Netherlands and South Korea. 8 of his articles have been published on Journals, including some renowned Journals in IP field, such as Computer Law and Security Review, International Review of Intellectual Property and Competition, European Intellectual Property Review and Intellectual Property (Chinese). His PhD thesis “Regulating Hosting ISP’s Responsibilities for Copyright Infringement: The Freedom to Operate in the US, EU and China” has been published with Springer in April 2018.

Wei WANG is now a PhD student at the University of Hong Kong. Trained in Engineering and Law, he focuses his research interests on IP & IT Law, Innovation Policy, particularly by means of Computational Legal Studies and Data Science. He engages as an Administrative Officer for the Creative Commons Hong Kong Chapter, of which he was also among the founding members. Prior to his PhD studies, Wei worked as Data Analyst of IP litigations in Shenzhen and Research Associate with a focus on AI and Copyright at Law and Technology Centre, HKU. Wei recently completed the WIPO/QUT LLM in Intellectual Property with a Dean's Scholarship. He also holds BEng, LLB and MPhil from Huazhong University of Science and Technology (China), with the support of the Research Center for the Judicial Protection of Intellectual Property approved by the Supreme People's Court of P.R.China. He has been an active speaker in the conferences organized by China Cyber & Information Law Society, WIPO and WTO. As a young interdisciplinary contributor (Associated Scholar) with eyes on law, innovation and data science, Wei has recently joined the CyberBRICS Project supported by Fundação Getulio Vargas (FGV) Law School in Brazil and five other institutions in the BRICS countries.

Xiaoren WANG received her J.S.D. (Doctor of the Science of Law) at the University of Illinois in May of 2019. Now she is a Max Weber postdoc fellow in European University Institute at Florence, Italy, working with Professor Peter Drahos. She is interested in intellectual property law, psychological and empirical studies. Her doctoral research focused on the empirical study of aesthetic functionality in US trademark law. She also worked with Professor Paul J. Heald, researching values of copyright in public domains. Before her J.S.D, Xiaoren practiced as a trademark attorney in China for five years. Her business covered counseling on trademark registrations, infringements, counterfeiting and designing trademark strategies for international companies. Her teaching interests are intellectual property law, comparative law and empirical methodologies.

Alice Yuen-Ting WONG, Ph.D., J.D., is an Intellectual Property Specialist of Albert Wai-Kit Chan Intellectual Property Limited. She has a Bachelor's degree in Biochemistry from The Chinese

University of Hong Kong (CUHK) and was awarded her Ph.D. in Biochemistry and J.D. from the same school. Dr. Wong has over 7 years of work experience in patent matters. Focusing on biotech and pharmaceutical inventions, she helps clients with drafting and managing patent applications and provides patent search and analysis. Dr. Wong has published several papers discussing IP and/or regulatory issues in the areas of stem cells, natural products, genomic medicine, foods and biosimilars. She teaches as a part-time lecturer on IP and relevant topics in the School of Life Sciences at CUHK. Before she joined the legal industry, she engaged in research on various topics including molecular biology, RNA/protein interactions and DNA-based authentication of Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM) for more than 7 years.

Chih-Chieh YANG received his L.L.B in law from National Taiwan University (2001), M.B.A from National Central University, Taiwan(2003), and Ph.D in the law from National Taiwan University (2006). Between 2008-2012, he was a assistant professor at Department of Law, Aletheia University, Taiwan. Since 2012, he serves as professor at Institute of Technology Law, National Yunlin University of Science & Technology, Taiwan. He majors in copyrights, patent laws, antitrust law and constitutional law. Most topics of his published essays are to compare U.S. IP laws, EU laws with Taiwan's IP laws, written in Chinese. Recently, he focuses on the relationship between IP enforcement and antitrust, especially the SEP license issues. Now he also is director of Intellectual Property Law Research Center, National Yunlin University of Science and Technology, Taiwan.

Sutatip YUTHAYOTIN is a Judge of the Office of the President of the Supreme Court of Thailand. Before her current position, she was a Judge and Secretary of the Central Intellectual Property and International Court of Thailand from 2014 to 2017. She is also an adjunct professor in various universities in Thailand and abroad including Kyushu University, Chulalongkorn University, Thammasat University, among others. With her expertise in IP laws and IP case law management, she has often been invited as guest speaker in many international IP legal forums including the St. Petersburg International Legal Forum 2016 organized by the Ministry of Justice of the Russian Federation, the 5th Asia Pacific IP Forum organized by Hokkaido University, ALA ASEAN Conference 2017 organized by the ASEAN Law Associations. She has published many articles and books. One of her outstanding works is the book “Access to Justice in Transactional B2C E-Commerce: A Multidimensional Analysis of Consumer Protection Mechanisms” published by Springer in 2014.

Chenguo ZHANG (Coco) holds a chair of Associate Professor at the KoGuan Law School of Shanghai Jiao Tong University, Shanghai, China. She is affiliated research fellow at the Centre of European Law and Politics, University of Bremen and the Max-Planck Institute for Innovation and Competition, Germany. She is now also Shanghai Oriental Chair of Distinguished Professor and visiting professor at Peking University, School of Transnational Law. She graduated from Tsinghua University, China (Bachelor of Law) and University Frankfurt (Master and Ph.D.), Germany. From 2013 to 2018, she taught intellectual property (IP) law at the University of Bremen and led a research project in innovation, competition and cross-border conflict resolutions. She wrote columns for legal journals and translated classic works of jurisprudence from German to Chinese. Her interests of research lie in the international, political, theoretical and the instrumental facets of the IP law with emphasis on China and the EU. Her latest publications include papers on the regulations of sharing economy, the sui generis right of traditional knowledge and folklore in developing countries, the three-step test and fair-use doctrine for more openness in copyright law, the basic theory of EU IP Law, the third amendment of the PRC Copyright Act as well as the PRC Patent Act. She wrote the book Protection of Collective Interests in German Law, published in Germany 2010.

Weiyu ZHANG is currently a Ph.D. student in Intellectual Property Law at Hokkaido University (Japan). Her doctoral research revolves mostly around the areas of patent law and exhaustion doctrine in Japan. She holds LL.B degree from Renmin University of China, LL.M. degree in International Economic Law from City University of Hong Kong, and also received her LL.M. degree in European and Asian Legal Studies from University of Vienna.

Shufeng ZHENG is a research associate of Applied Research Centre for Intellectual Assets and the Law in Asia (ARCIALA) of Singapore Management University and a Ph.D. student in Peking University with a specialization in Intellectual Property law. She received LLB degree from Southwest University of Political Science and Law, and two master degrees from Peking University and the University of Hong Kong. Her research focuses on data protection, copyright license, secondary liabilities, and patent protection for software-related inventions.

Xiaorui ZHU is currently a Ph.D. candidate at the School of Law, Tsinghua University. She earned her LL.B. from Beijing Foreign Studies University in 2015 and LL.M. from Tsinghua University in 2017. Her research interests include copyright law, patent law, trademark and anti-unfair competition law. She represented her research on “Legal Boundaries of Competition Online” in the conference of 7th Global Forum on Internet Governance in 2017. She has published some research papers on the law journals. Apart from academic activities, she once served as a judge assistant in the Supreme People’s Court of PRC, Intellectual Property Tribunal in 2017 as well as in Beijing Intellectual Property Court in 2016.